The ideal accessory for your FRITZ!Box!

The ergonomic FRITZ!Fon M2 cordless phone is the perfect springboard into the world of convenient telephony and has been specially designed for FRITZ!Box models with a DECT base station. It boasts sophisticated design, outstanding sound quality, and additional functions for multimedia applications and Internet services.

- Cordless telephone (DECT) for Internet and landline telephony
- Perfect addition to all FRITZ!Box models with a DECT base station
- Supports HD telephony for natural sound
- Full-duplex hands-free function, speakerphone in HD quality
- Secured with ex works voice encryption

Convenient telephony and more

The FRITZ!Fon M2 is the perfect springboard into the world of convenient cordless telephony. But there's more: FRITZ!Fon also offers a wide range of multimedia applications and Internet services. Communication, information, and entertainment all come together in one elegant and easy-to-use device.

Optimum sound quality

Whether you're holding the device up to your ear or using the hands-free function and speakerphone, the FRITZ!Fon M2 always delivers outstanding sound quality and natural acoustics thanks to its HD telephony capability, making even long telephone calls extremely enjoyable.

Touch base

The FRITZ!Fon M2 has been specially designed for use with FRITZ!Box models featuring a DECT base station. This combination allows you to make the most of the functions offered by your FRITZ!Fon and benefit from free updates.

Simple and easy to use

With the FRITZ!Fon M2, making calls is fun! Thanks to its ergonomic keypad and intelligent menus, you can access all the information you've stored on your FRITZ!Fon in a matter of seconds.

Ready to use

Remove from box, register, and you're good to go. In just a few short steps, your FRITZ!Fon is ready for telephony and multimedia applications. It goes without saying that maximum security is already included - thanks to ex works encryption.

A multimedia experience

Send and receive e-mails, subscribe to podcasts and RSS feeds, and listen to Internet radio or saved music - the FRITZ!Fon M2 is your very own handheld multimedia hub.
