Introducing the all-new Pro Guard to take protection to another level of extreme. The four-layer case was designed to pack defense at its fullest every inch of the device minus the excessive bulk. The back of the device is guarded with a shock-absorbent and rigid layer while the front uses the combination of a rigid frame and custom fit glass for screen protection. Every contour is finished off with gloss detailing to highlight areas cut from unnecessary bulk for an ergonomic feel. Experience endless adventures with the new Pro Guard.

- Four-layer design for 360° heavy-duty protection
- Front frame adds extra coverage along the front edges
- Touch responsive built-in screen for added screen defense
- Quick access with precise cutouts and responsive buttons
